§ 116-17.3. Board of Governors monitors certain human resources actions.

(a) The Board of Governors of The University of North Carolina shall monitor nonlegislative annual employee salary increases in the amount of five percent (5%) or more granted at constituent institutions or within The University of North Carolina System Office (i) to employees having annual salaries of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) or greater or (ii) that would result in an annual employee salary of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) or greater. No such salary increase shall become effective unless or until it is reported to the Board by a consultation that includes the justification for the increase or otherwise complies with consultation requirements adopted by the Board.

(b) The Board of Governors of The University of North Carolina shall monitor new personnel positions created at constituent institutions or within The University of North Carolina System Office having annual salaries of seventy thousand dollars ($70,000) or greater. No such new position may be filled unless or until its creation is reported to the Board by a consultation that includes the justification for the new position or otherwise complies with consultation requirements adopted by the Board.
