The interest of very many of the good people of this commonwealth requires that the improvement of the navigation of the Roanoke river and its branches, capable of being made navigable both in North-Carolina and Virginia, should be begun and completed as early as possible, and that the right to improve the navigation of the said river and its branches shall be vested in one company,

Be it further enacted, That the exclusive right to improve the navigation of said river and its branches, within the limits of the state of Virginia, shall be and the same is hereby vested in the company incorporated by several acts of the state Legislature of North-Carolina, passed in the years one thousand eight hundred and twelve, one thousand eight hundred and fifteen and one thousand eight hundred and sixteen, for the purpose of improving the navigation of the Roanoke river, from where the Virginia line intersects the river to the Albemarle sound, and called "the Roanoke Navigation Company," that the powers of the President and Directors of said Company, now elected, and their successors, shall extend to and be exercised over the improvement of the said river and its branches, which are created and vested in them by the several acts of incorporation granted them by the State of North-Carolina over that part of the river Roanoke which runs through the State of North-Carolina; and the rights of the company to improve the navigation of the said river and its branches, with all other rights and powers created by this act and vested in the company, shall be held, exercised and enjoyed in common both by the citizens of Virginia and the state of North-Carolina, who are now or shall hereafter become stockholders in the said company; and that for and in consideration of the expenses the said Company shall be at, not only in cutting canals, erecting locks, and other works for opening the different falls of the said river, and in improving and extending the navigation thereof, but in maintaining and keeping the same in repair, the said canals and works with all their profits, shall be and the same are hereby vested in the stockholders of the aforesaid Company, who now are or shall hereafter become stockholders, their heirs and assigns forever, as tenants in common in proportion to their respective shares, and the same shall be deemed real estate, and be forever exempt from the payment of any tax, imposition or assessment whatever. It shall and may be lawful for the said President and Directors to receive tolls, and fix them at such rates that the nett profit to be received by the Company, when they shall have completed the navigation of the said river and its branches within the state of Virginia and North-Carolina, according to the conditions of their charter granted by that state, fifteen per cent. nett profit exclusive of the expenses of officer's fees and all other charges annually incurred upon the capital stock created by the state of North-Carolina, and which shall be added thereto by this law. But should the said Company not expend the whole stock created by their acts of incorporation granted by the state of North Carolina, and the stock to be added thereto by this law, in the improvement of the navigation of the said river and its branches, and the carrying into full effect their charter granted by the Legislature of North-Carolina, that then they shall only receive fifteen per cent. nett profit upon so much of their capital as they shall actually have expended in carrying their several charters into full effect. The President and Directors and their successors, or a majority of them, shall have full power and authority to agree with any person or persons on behalf of the said Company, to cut such canals and erect such locks, and perform such other works as they shall judge necessary for opening, improving and extending the navigation of the said river and its branches, from the eastern boundary line between this state and the state of North-Carolina, and carrying on the same from place to place and from time to time and upon such terms and in such manner as they shall think fit, and out of the money arising from their stock subscribed, the tolls and other aid given, to pay for the same, and to repair and keep in order the said canals, locks and other works necessary thereto, and to defray all incidental charges, and to appoint toll-gatherers, superintendants or agents, and fix their wages, and to pay them, and to make and establish rules of proceedings, and to transact all business and concerns of the Company, not exclusively vested in the stockholders in their general meetings.

11. And the said President and Directors, or a majority of them, shall have full power and authority to agree with the owners of any land, through which any canal is intended to pass, for the purchase thereof; and in case of disagreement, or the owner thereof shall be seme covert, under age, non compos mentis, or out of the state, on application to any two justices of the county in which such land shall lie, the said justices shall issue their warrant under their hands to the sheriff of their county to summon a jury of twenty four inhabitants of his county, possessing the same qualifications as jurors to serve in the Superior courts of law in this commonwealth, to meet on the land to be valued on a day to be expressed in the warrant, not less than ten nor more than twenty days thereafter, and the sheriff upon receiving the said warrant, shall forthwith summon the said jury, and when met, provided that not less than twelve do appear, which shall be a sufficient number to compose a jury, but if more, all that are present shall be impannelled on the jury, but if twelve do not appear, and there are by-standers possessing the necessary qualifications, then the sheriff shall with those that do appear empannel as many by-standers as will make a jury of twelve at least, which jury when empannelled shall, (to be administered by the sheriff,) take the following oath or affirmation, that they will faithfully, truly and impartially value the land not exceeding in any case the width of one hundred and sixty feet, and assess all damages the owner thereof shall sustain by cutting the canal through such lands according to the best of their skill and judgment, and that in such valuation, they will not spare any person through fear or affection, nor any person grieve through malice, hatred or ill will; and the sheriff shall thereupon take an inquisition which shall be signed and sealed by the sheriff, and at least twelve of the jury; in which verdict, if twelve of the jury concur, it shall be sufficient and as effectual as if all the jury had agreed in the verdict, which inquisition so taken by the sheriff shall by him be returned to the clerk of his county county, to be by him recorded upon the return thereof, and upon every such valuation it shall be the duty of the county surveyor to attend such jury, and he is hereby directed to describe and ascertain the bounds of the lands by the jury valued, and return a plat thereof to be recorded with the inquisition taken by the sheriff, and the valuation of the jury shall be conclusive and final upon all persons, and the damages by them found shall be paid by the President and Directors to the owner of the land, or his or her legal representatives; and on payment thereof, the said company shall be seized in fee of such land, and it shall be forever vested in them. For summoning and empannelling and attending the jury, and making his return the sheriff shall receive four dollars. The surveyor for making any survey, making a plat and the return thereof, five dollars; and the clerk of the court for recording the inquisition and return, shall receive one dollar and ninety two cents, which fees shall be paid by the President and Directors.

III. Be it further enacted. That all laws necessary for erecting buildings near the place of receipt of tolls aforesaid, shall be valued condemned and paid for as aforesaid, and the Company shall upon payment of the valuation of the said land, be seized thereof in fee simple as aforesaid. Should it happen that twelve of any jury which may be empannelled under this law cannot agree in a verdict, it shall be lawful for the sheriff to discharge such jury, and make return upon the warrant of the fact to the justices issuing such warrant, or any other two justices in the county, who shall thereupon issue another in the same manner as if no warrant had ever issued, and the same proceedings shall be had as if no warrant had issued, and shall be in like manner proceeded in until a jury shall be had, twelve of whom shall agree in a verdict; but no jurymen shall be summoned by the sheriff upon any subsequent jury who was sworn upon any divided jury; and in all such new proceedings, the sheriff and surveyor shall receive the same fees for each jury to be paid for in like manner as are allowed to them in the fifth section of this act.

And whereas, some of the places through which it may be necessary to conduct the said canals may be convenient for erecting mills, forges and other water works, and the person possessing such situation may design to improve the same :

IV. Be it therefore enacted, That the water, or any part conveyed through any canal cut or made by the said company shall not be used for any purpose but navigation, unless the consent of the proprietors of the lands through which the same shall be led, be first had, and the said President and Directors, or a majority of them, are hereby empowered and directed, if it can be conveniently done, to answer both the purposes of navigation and the water works aforesaid, to enter into reasonable agreements with the proprietors of such situations, concerning the just proportion of the expenses of making large canals, or cuts capable of carrying such volume or volumes of water as may be sufficient for the purposes of navigation, and also for any such water works as aforesaid; but in no case whatever, shall the owner or proprietor of such land through which any canal may be cut as aforesaid, withdraw from any canal cut by the aforesaid Company the water therefrom for the purpose of working any mill, forges or other water works whatever.

V. And be it further enacted, That the said river and its branches are now declared, and the works to be erected thereon in virtue of this act, when completed, shall forever thereafter be esteemed and taken to be navigable as a public highway, free for the transportation of all goods, commodities or produce whatever, on payment of the tolls imposed by this act.

VI. Be it further enacted, That to enable the said Company to improve the navigation of the said river and its tributary streams, according to the provisions of this act, a capital stock of two hundred thousand dollars, in addition to their stock created and granted them by the General Assembly of North-Carolina, is hereby created, which shall be divided into two thousand shares of one hundred dollars each; and that the stockholders of the above-said Company at their next general meeting, whether it be their annual or general meeting called by the President and Directors, shall open books at such places, and under the management of such commissioners as they may think proper to appoint, that no person shall subscribe for a part of a share or shares, but for one whole share at the least, and that upon the shares so subscribed the person or bodies politic or corporate subscribing shall pay, on the first day of December next to the said President and Directors or a majority of them, ten per cent. upon each share subscribed, and such requisitions as the said President and Directors, or a majority of them, may make, so that they shall not on any subscription exceed thirty three and one third per cent in any one year.

And for all shares not subscribed for the first day of December next, the commissioners appointed by the stockholders at their next general meeting shall continue their books open, and shall be subject to any further directions of the stockholders in their general meetings, who may, if necessary, appoint other or additional commissioners at the same or other places, until they shall dispose of the stock created by this law.

That for all stock subscribed for after the first day of December next at the time of subscribing, ten per cent. shall be paid upon each share so subscribed for, and such requisitions as the President and Directors, or a majority of them, may make, so that they do not exceed thirty three and one third per cent. in any one year.

That the said commissioners shall at every general meeting of the stockholders held after their appointment, return their books of the subscription to the President and Directors, or a majority of them, and at the same time account for the money received by them, and in the event of their failure to pay the money so received, the said President and Directors may upon ten days previous notice being given to such commissioner, recover the amount by him so received with costs, and fifteen per cent damages until payment, in any court of record in this state; and in the event of more than two thousand shares being subscribed, the stockholders at their next general meeting, after the books are closed, shall strike from the shares of those having the highest number until the stock shall be reduced to two hundred thousand dollars; and should it happen that two or more persons should hold an equal number of shares which stand the highest upon the list, that then the stockholders shall decide by ballot, from whose stock the shares are to be taken; always striking from the highest number until the stock shall be reduced to two hundred thousand dollars.

The several banks in this State and all bodies politic and corporate, shall be and they are hereby authorised to subscribe for shares in the said Company, and to hold and enjoy the same in the same way as individuals, subject to the same restrictions and modes of recovery.

VII. Be it further enacted, That whenever the said President and Directors, or their successors, shall make requisitions upon the Stockholders for payment of any part of their stock, they shall give one month's public notice of such order of requisition so made, in some Newspaper published in Petersburg, the Borough of Norfolk, and Raleigh in the State of North-Carolina, and if upon such requisitions so made, and notice given, any Stockholders shall fail to make immediate payment of the requisition so made, the President and Directors upon motion in any Court of Record in this Commonwealth, having given ten days previous notice of such motion, may recover judgment of any delinquent Stockholder for such requisitions so made upon him and costs of motion, including one dollar for service of notice, and sue out execution thereon, upon which the Clerk shall indorse, "no security of any kind to be taken," and such execution shall be directed to the Sheriff of the County or Serjeant of the Town, City or Borough, where such delinquent shall then or last have resided, who shall without delay proceed to levy the same, and if the officer to whom such execution is directed shall fail to make the debt and costs due thereon, and shall make a return of nulla bona as to part or the whole of the execution, then and in that case, the President and Directors shall immediately proceed to advertise such delinquent stock one month in some one newspaper in Virginia and North-Carolina, and sell so much of the stock, as is delinquent for cash, as will satisfy and pay whatever balance of debt and costs may be due the Company, and after deducting what may be due, with the costs of advertising and other incidental charges of sale, shall pay over any overplus in their hands to the original subscriber, and the stock so sold shall be held by such purchaser, subject to any future requisitions which may after such sale be made by the President and Directors, as it would have been in the hands of the first holder, and in all things the purchaser shall be substituted in the place of the original holder, & in all such sales the President and Directors shall convey the stock so sold to the purchaser by deed, stating the cause of sale, which deed shall be duly recorded in the County Court where the last holder lived, as other deeds for real estate, and registered on the Books of the Company.

It shall and may be lawful for said Stockholders to transfer their Share or Shares of Stock by deed executed in the presence of two witnesses, or the execution thereof acknowledged by the party thereto, and recorded in the County or corporation Court where the holder lives at the time of the sale, and registered in the books of the Company, but in no case shall a transfer of a part or parts of a share or shares be made either by deed or will, and in all cases of Stock cast by descent or devised by will, the descent cast or devise made shall be entered on the Books of the Company, and if any Stockholders shall die intestate and his shares shall descend to his distributees, and upon division thereof, the shares cannot be equally divided between such distributees, without dividing shares into parts of shares, such shares as cannot be divided in entire shares shall be sold for their benefit, and the proceeds divided between them according to their respective rights, provided, that no transfer whatever shall be made, conveyed or held in trust for the use and benefit or in the name of another whereby the President and Directors or proprietors of the said company or any of them, shall or may be made to answer concerning any such trust, but that every person appearing as aforesaid to be a proprietor, shall as to the others of the said company be to every intent taken absolutely as such, but between any trustee and the person for whose benefit any trust shall be created, the common remedy may be pursued.

VIII. Be it further enacted, That the said President and Directors, or a majority of them shall make out a fair list under their hands and seals of the names and Stockholders, their places and residence, and the number of shares subscribed for by each Stockholder under this act, to the County Court of Mecklenburg, which list so returned shall be recorded, by the Clerk, who shall grant a certificate to each Stockholder, certifying the number of shares by him held; for recording which return and granting the certificate, the Clerk may demand and receive of each Stockholder fifty cents, which certificate shall be legal evidence of the Stockholders right to his stock, and a like list, certified by the President and Directors or a majority of them, shall be registered on the books of the Company at some of the general meetings of the Stockholders.

IX. Be it further enacted, That the Board of public works in this State are authorised and required to subscribe the sum of eighty thousand dollars towards the stock of the Roanoke Navigation Company, upon condition that the State of North Carolina shall give its assent to this act. The said subscription to be upon the same terms in all respects with that of the State of North-Carolina to the stock of the Roanoke Navigation Company.

X. And be it further enacted, That if the capital stock created by the State of Virginia and North-Carolina, shall prove insufficient to improve the Navigation of the said River and its branches, the Stockholders in general meeting shall have power to open books in the same manner, and upon the same terms and principles, as they are authorised by the charter of the State of North-Carolina, and they shall authorise as many shares, of one hundred dollars each to be taken in Virginia as are authorised by the State of North-Carolina, and the Stockholders shall, as in the charter of North-Carolina be allowed thirty days from the opening such books in exclusion of all other persons to take such stock.

And if the said stock is not taken by the said Stockholders in thirty days then such stock, as shall remain unsubscribed for, may be subscribed for by any person, body politic or corporate, under such restrictions as to time of payment as the Stockholders may impose, and the Stockholders subscribing for the stock thus created by the Stockholders shall have use, and be entitled to all the rights, privileges and emunities of the original Stockholders, and be subject to the like rules and regulations, and their shares to be recorded and registered in like manner, and in case of delinquency in payment of requisitions liable to the same mode of recovery.

The said President and directors, and their successors, shall from time to time, for the use of the navigation of the said River, its tributary streams and canals constructed thereon, graduate a scale of tolls so as to make the tolls by them to be imposed bear a just proportion to different designated points of distance.

XII. Be it further enacted, That after deducting the necessary expenses for the current year, the dividends of the profits arising upon the stock created by this charter, shall be declared and divided between the Stockholders, in proportion to the number of shares each shall hold at the same time, and in the same manner, as the dividends are directed to be made and declared between the Stockholders by the acts of incorporation granted the aforesaid Company by the General Assembly of North-Carolina.

The President and Directors of the said Company for the time being shall cause to set up, and continually kept up, at all their toll gates, at the respective toll houses they may erect, the rates of toll, that may be established, so that an effectual check may be imposed upon the Collectors of tolls.

And if it shall appear, from their reports so made, that the President and Directors of the said Company have exacted greater tolls than have yielded them the clear profits allowed by this charter, and the charter of North-Carolina, the General Assembly of Virginia reserves to itself the right of thereafter regulating the tolls of said Company, so that such regulations shall not diminish their net profit below fifteen per cent. upon their capital actually expended according to their charter.

The said president and directors, may and shall, have the power to employ their hands hired or purchased, in Virginia or North-Carolina, as the interest of the Company may require, without incurring any of the penalties of the Laws against bringing slaves into this State; but this privilege shall not extend to the Company the right of selling in this State any of the slaves by them purchased in any other State than Virginia.

XV. Be it further enacted. That it shall and may be lawful for the said President and Directors for the time being to demand and receive tolls at the several places they shall establish for the receipt thereof, and in case of refusal or neglect to pay the tolls at the time of offering to pass through the places aforesaid, and previous to the vessels passing through the same, the collector of the tolls may lawfully refuse passage to such vessel, and if any vessel shall pass without paying the said tolls, then the said Collector may seize such vessel, wherever found, and sell the same at auction for ready money, which so far as may be necessary, shall be applied towards paying the said tolls and all expences of seizure and sale, and the balance if any, shall be paid to the owner, and the person having the direction of such vessel shall be liable for such toll, if the same is not paid by the sale of such vessel as aforesaid.

XVI. Be it further enacted. That in case the said Company shall not complete their works, and the improvement of the navigation of the said River and its tributary streams, by the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and forty three, then shall all the interest of the said Company, under this charter and all preference in their favour as to the Navigation and toll aforesaid be forfeited and cease.

XVII. Be it further enacted, That at the next general meeting of the Stockholders of the Roanoke Navigation Company, created by the Legislature of the State of North Carolina, whether it be called or their annual general meeting, the said Stockholders shall declare their acceptance or rejection of this charter, with its conditions and limitations as created and vested in them, by this act: and if they accept the Charter, a resolution shall be adopted by them declaring their acceptance with its condition, which shall be inserted in their proceedings at large upon their Books; a copy of which resolution, certified under the hand and seal of their Chairman and Secretary and countersigned by their President, shall be transmitted, to the executive of the State of Virginia and the Governor of North Carolina, which resolution shall form a part of the communication of the Governor to the General Assembly of Virginia at their next session.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That should the aforesaid Company accept the charter offered to them by this law, that then the law passed the nineteenth day of February one thousand eight hundred and sixteen entitled "an act incorporating a Company for the purpose of improving the Navigation of Roanoke River and its Branches," shall be and the same is hereby repealed, but should the charter aforesaid be rejected by the aforesaid Company, that then the said act shall remain in full force, and although the said Company should reject this charter their rejection shall not impair the first and second sections of this act.

XIX. This act shall be in force from the passing thereof.

Now be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the assent of the State of North Carolina, be and the same is hereby given to the said act: and the Roanoke Navigation Company, shall have, exercise and enjoy all the rights, franchises, and privileges given by the said act, subject to the limitations and restrictions therein contained; But nothing contained in the said act or in any other act, heretofore passed, respecting the Navigation of Roanoke River and its branches shall be construed to prohibit the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, from passing acts for the incorporation of Companies to cut canals from the river Roanoke, or any of its tributary streams, so as to connect the waters thereof, with other Rivers or streams; Provided that the Legislature shall not authorise the withdrawal from the said River or its tributary streams or canals cut or constructed thereon so much of its waters as to interfere with the rights secured to the aforesaid Company or to impair the Navigation which the said company is authorised to improve; and provided further that the State of North Carolina shall at any time have the right to increase her subscription to the stock of said company so that her whole interest in the said stock shall not exceed the sum of eighty thousand dollars.
