Any landowner considering himself damaged by reason of acts authorized in this section may, within sixty days from the commission of the act complained of, present his claim to the board of road commissioners, who shall pass thereon within thirty days, and the landowner may, within ten days from the notice of the decision, appeal to the Superior Court. If the owner shall not receive a greater amount of damages than that offered by the decision of the board of road commissioners, he shall be taxed with all the costs of appeal.
Right of appeal.
Location and change of roads.	SEC. 7. The board of road commissioners shall have the power, on petition or upon their own motion, to locate, relocate, construct, widen, or otherwise change public roads or parts thereof, and to lay out and construct new roads when in their judgment the same will be advantageous to public travel, and for such purposes are authorized, through their agents, to enter upon lands to make the necessary surveys. Before doing any work of construction, apart from the surveying, the board of road commissioners shall give to the owner or owners of land over which the proposed new road or change of road may run, at least five days notice in writing of the time and place when and where the board will consider the question of condemning the necessary land. If the landowner be a minor or insane, such notice shall be given to him and his guardian; if there be no guardian, to the person with whom he is living. If the landowner be a nonresident or cannot be found within the county, such notice shall be mailed to his last known address and published in a newspaper published in Davie County at least ten days before the hearing. If the board shall find the proposed improvement advantageous to public travel and shall decide to condemn the land necessary for the road, they shall so declare and enter the order of condemnation in their minutes. Upon question of condemnation, the finding of the board shall not be subject to review. No strip of land wider than forty feet, with such additional width as shall be necessary for cuts and fills, shall be acquired by condemnation. Upon making the order of condemnation, the board shall have authority, through their agents, to immediately take possession of the land and construct the road. If the landowner, after the road has been relocated or changed, or after the new road has been opened, shall consider himself damaged, and shall be unable to agree with the board as to the amount of damages, he shall, within ninety days after opening, relocating, or otherwise changing the road, apply to the clerk of the Superior Court for an assessment of damages. Five days notice of such application shall be given to the board of road commissioners. The clerk of the court shall appoint and cause to be summoned a jury of three disinterested freeholders to assess the damages, and shall, at the time of appointing the jury, fix the time and place of their meeting. If for any cause the jury shall fail to so meet, they shall meet at such other time and place as may be fixed by them, after giving forty-eight hours notice thereof to the board and to the landowner or his attorney. The jurors, after being duly sworn by the sheriff, shall, in considering the question of damages, take into consideration the benefits to the landowner and shall render a verdict for such amount, if any, as the damages may exceed the benefits, and shall report their findings and verdict to the clerk of the court, and the clerk shall render judgment accordingly, and shall tax the landowner with the costs of the assessment if the damages assessed shall not exceed the amount offered by the board of road commissioners. Either the board of road commissioners or the landowner may appeal to the Superior Court within ten days from the filing of the report. If the landowner appeals, the clerk shall require him to give a bond or make a deposit in a sum not exceeding one hundred dollars, to secure such costs as may be recovered against him on appeal, and if the amount of damages recovered by him in the Superior Court shall not exceed the assessment appealed from, he shall be taxed with all the costs on appeal. If the landowner make affidavit, by reason of poverty, to give the bond or make the deposit required, he shall be allowed to appeal without bond. The bond or deposit may be increased by the judge of the Superior Court. The appellate court shall in no wise adjudicate the necessity of the location, relocation, widening, changing or of the opening of the road, but shall try, under the rules of procedure of the Superior Court, only the question of damages and benefit: Provided, that if the board shall desire to have the damages assessed before proceeding to the work of construction, and shall fail to agree with the landowner as to the damages, they shall, within sixty days after the order of condemnation, make application to the clerk accordingly, first, however, serving upon the landowner, in the manner hereinbefore provided for condemnation, notice of such application. Upon hearing the application, the clerk shall appoint and cause to be summoned a jury of three distinguished freeholders, who shall proceed and make report, as hereinbefore directed, except that they shall separately state therein the damage, if any, caused by the survey or surveys, and the rights of appeal and proceeding on appeal shall be as hereinbefore set forth: Provided, that within ten days after filing said report or before final judgment in the Superior Court, if any appeal shall have been taken, the board shall have the election to abandon the proposed road improvement or construction, and in such case the clerk or judge of the Superior Court, if an appeal shall have been taken, shall render judgment so declaring, setting aside the order of condemnation, awarding to the landowner the damages actually sustained, and taxing the board with all costs.

CHAPTER 210.

AN ACT TO VALIDATE CERTAIN BONDS PROPOSED TO BE ISSUED UNDER CHAPTER 838 OF THE PUBLIC LAWS OF NORTH CAROLINA, SESSION 1909.

Whereas an election was held in Randleman Township, Randolph County, State of North Carolina, on the eighteenth day of January, one thousand nine hundred and ten, submitting to the voters of said township a proposition to issue fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) in bonds of said township for the permanent improvement of the public roads of said township, as provided by chapter eight hundred and thirty-eight of the Public Laws of North Carolina, session one thousand nine hundred and nine, at which said election there were two hundred and eighty-three qualified voters, of whom two hundred and three voted "For Good Roads," and, upon the returns of said election being made to the board of county commissioners of Randolph County as by said statute directed, said board of commissioners canvassed and determined said returns and found that the aforesaid election resulted in favor of the proposed bond issue thereunder; and whereas an election was held in Asheboro Township, Randolph County, State of North Carolina, on the fifteenth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and ten, to determine the will of the qualified voters of said township with respect to a proposition to issue fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) in bonds of said town-

AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE THE COMMISSIONERS OF MECKLENBURG COUNTY TO ISSUE BONDS TO FUND ITS FLOATING INDEBTEDNESS, BUILD A NEW COUNTY JAIL, AND CONSTRUCT CERTAIN HIGHWAY BRIDGES.

Preamble: reductions of tax rate.

Whereas, on account of a reduction in the year one thousand nine hundred and eight of the tax rate for county purposes of twenty cents (20c.) on the hundred dollars valuation of taxable property, and a further reduction of said rate in one thousand nine hundred and eleven of five cents (5c.) on the hundred dollars valuation of such property, the total revenues of the county of Mecklenburg from the year one thousand nine hundred and eight to one thousand nine hundred and twelve, both inclusive, were decreased in the sum of one hundred and fifty-four thousand twenty-seven and fifty-four one-hundredth dollars ($154,027.54):

Decrease of revenue.

and whereas, on account of the extraordinary expenses of seventy-one thousand five hundred fifty-eight and forty one-hundredth dollars ($71,558.40), incurred during said period in defraying said county's share of the cost of the construction of the bridges over the Catawba River, at Rozzell's Ferry and at Sloan's Ferry, the disbursements by said county have been increased in that amount; and whereas, on account of said decreased revenues and the extraordinary expenses incurred, as aforesaid, a deficit in receipts as against disbursements for the years one thousand nine hundred and eight to one thousand nine hundred and twelve, both inclusive, approximating two hundred and fifteen thousand dollars ($215,000), has arisen, which said deficit is represented by the present floating outstanding indebtedness of said county, on which floating indebtedness it has to pay a much higher rate of interest to the several banks carrying the same than it would have to pay in case said floating indebtedness should be converted into long time, low interest-bearing county bonds; and whereas at various terms of the Superior Court of Mecklenburg County, recently held, the grand juries have reported that the county jail is inadequate, unsanitary and unsafe, and have from time to time admonished the board of commissioners of said county to build a modern, safe, and sanitary jail, adequate to meet the present and future demands of the county, which jail, in the opinion of the board of commissioners of said county, ought not to cost exceeding seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000); and whereas, in extending the public highways in various directions from the city of Charlotte to the confines of said county, it has become imperative that the board of commissioners of said county should either build or rebuild a number of permanent steel or concrete bridges over certain streams crossed by said highways, which, in the opinion of said board, can be accomplished by an expenditure of not exceeding thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000); and whereas, owing to the greatly increased cost of maintaining the several chain-gangs engaged in constructing and repairing the highways of said county, and the necessary teams and road machinery used in connection therewith, which increased cost is due to the general high cost of living, the funds derived from the levy and collection of a reasonable highway tax will be totally inadequate to continue highway building in said county and at the same time construct the bridges aforesaid, there being no funds from the general county tax available for said purpose, thereby rendering it necessary to issue and sell bonds to defray the cost of building said bridges: Now, therefore,

Preamble: extraordinary expenses.

Preamble: deficit.

Interest.

Preamble: jail condemned by grand juries.

Preamble: need for bridges.

Preamble: increased cost of chain-gangs.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

preceding the day of sale, in at least one newspaper of general circulation published in Mecklenburg County, and may also advertise said sale in one or more financial journals published anywhere in the United States, giving the time and place when bids will be opened for the sale of said bonds and the terms upon which said bonds are issued: Provided, that said board shall have the right in its discretion to reject any and all bids for said bonds, but shall not accept any bid for less than par.

Proviso: right to reject bids. Bids below par not accepted.

SEC. 6. That the proceeds arising from the sale of said bonds issued under the provisions of this act shall constitute three separate and distinct funds, as follows: two hundred and fifteen thousand dollars ($215,000) of such proceeds shall be used exclusively for the purpose of funding the present floating indebtedness of said county; not exceeding seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000) of said proceeds shall be used exclusively for the purpose of building a new county jail, and not exceeding thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000) of said proceeds shall be used exclusively for the purpose of building bridges over streams intersecting several highways in said county, which bridges shall be designated by said board of commissioners; and said board shall cause the Treasurer of Mecklenburg County to open and keep three separate accounts, in accordance with the foregoing divisions of said proceeds, and the said treasurer shall be liable officially, as well as personally, to all the requirements of the law now prescribed for other county funds, or which may be hereafter prescribed, for the faithful keeping and disbursement of said funds; and the board of commissioners shall require said treasurer to give bond for the faithful and honest performance of his duties in respect to said special funds, which bond shall be in such amount as said board, in its discretion, may fix. AN ACT TO RATIFY THE ACTS OF THE BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS OF NASH COUNTY IN CALLING ELECTIONS FOR THE ISSUE OF BONDS FOR THE BUILDING AND IMPROVEMENT OF THE PUBLIC ROADS OF RED OAK AND COOPERS TOWNSHIP, IN NASH COUNTY, AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES.

Whereas, by section eighteen of chapter four hundred and fifty-one, Public-Local Laws of North Carolina, enacted at the General Assembly of one thousand nine hundred and eleven, the board of commissioners of Nash County are authorized and directed to issue bonds for certain different townships in Nash County, among them being the following, in amounts as follows, to wit: for Coopers Township, fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000); for Red Oak Township, ten thousand dollars ($10,000), the said bond issue for the purpose of grading, building, and improving the public roads of said townships, but the bonds to be issued only provided a majority of the qualified voters of such townships shall authorize the same in elections to be held as provided in said act; and whereas, in publishing the notice of the election for Coopers Township, which notice was given by order of the board of commissioners of Nash County at its regular meeting on the first Monday in February, one thousand nine hundred and twelve, the qualified voters of Coopers Township were by the error of the printer of the paper in which the notice appeared required to take notice of election for the issue of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) of bonds for the purposes of building, repairing, and improving the public roads of Coopers Township, instead of fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) of bonds as authorized by section eighteen of said act; and whereas, by section twenty-one of said act, the county commissioners of Nash County are directed to call the elections provided for in said chapter not later than the fifteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and eleven, with the further provision authorizing, empowering, and directing them, in their discretion, and in the event of the failure of the first election, "to resubmit

Preamble: majority of qualified vote for bond issue.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Action of commissioners and elections ratified and confirmed.

SECTION 1. That the said action of the board of commissioners of Nash County in resubmitting the question and in calling the elections on the first Monday of February, one thousand nine hundred and twelve, to be held on the twentieth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twelve, and the holding of said elections and the issue of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) of bonds for both Coopers and Red Oak townships for road improvement in said townships, as in the above preamble set forth, be and the same is hereby in all respects ratified and confirmed, and is declared to be valid and in accordance with the law, and the bonds when issued and sold thereunder shall be and are binding, valid, and subsisting obligations of the said townships in the proportion of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) to Coopers Township and ten thousand dollars ($10,000) to Red Oak Township in said county.
