1 A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
2 AN ACT TO MAKE CONFORMING CHANGES REQUIRED BY THE FEDERAL
3 TRUTH IN MILEAGE ACT.

4 The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

5 Section 1. G.S. 20-341 reads as rewritten:

6 "§ 20-341. Definitions.

7 As used in this Article:

- 8 (1) The term 'odometer' means an instrument for measuring and recording 9 the actual distance a motor vehicle travels while in operation; but shall
10 not include any auxiliary odometer designed to be reset by the operator
11 of the motor vehicle for the purpose of recording mileage on trips.
- 12 (2) The term 'repair and replacement' means to restore to a sound working 13 condition by replacing the odometer or any part thereof or by 14 correcting what is inoperative.
- 15 (3) The term 'transfer' means to change ownership by purchase, gift, or 16 any other means.
- 17 (4) The term 'transferee' means any person to whom the ownership in a
18 motor vehicle is transferred or any person who, as agent, accepts
19 transfer of ownership in a motor vehicle for another by purchase, gift,
20 or any means other than by creation of a security interest.

- 1 (5) The term 'transferor' means any person who or any person who, as 2 agent, transfers his ownership in a motor vehicle by sale, gift or any
3 means other than by creation of a security interest.
- 4 (6) The term 'lessee' means any person, or the agent for any person, to 5 whom a motor vehicle has been leased for a term of at least four 6 months.
- 7 (7) The term 'lessor' means any person, or the agent for any person, who 8 has leased five or more vehicles in the past 12 months.
- 9 (8) The term 'mileage' means the actual distance that a vehicle has 10 traveled."

11 Sec. 2. G.S. 20-347(a) reads as rewritten:

12 "(a) In connection with the transfer of a motor vehicle, the transferor shall ~~deliver~~
13 disclose the mileage to the transferee, prior to execution of any transfer of ownership
14 document, a single written statement which contains the following in writing on the title or on 15 the document used to reassign the title. This written disclosure must be signed by the 16 transferor, including the printed name, and shall contain the following information:

- 17 (1) The odometer reading at the time of the transfer(not to include tenths 18 of miles);
- 19 (2) The date of the transfer;
- 20 (3) The transferor's name and current address;
- 21 (3a) The transferee's printed name, signature and current address;
- 22 (4) The identity of the vehicle, including its make, model, body type, its 23 and vehicle identification number, and the license plate number most 24 recently used on the vehicle;
- 25 (5) ~~A statement that the mileage is unknown if the transferor knows the~~ 26 ~~odometer reading differs from the number of miles the vehicle has~~
27 ~~actually traveled, and that the difference is greater than that caused by~~
28 ~~odometer calibration error~~Certification by the transferor that to the best
29 of his knowledge the odometer reading;
- 30 a. Reflects the actual mileage; or
- 31 b. Reflects the amount of mileage in excess of the designed
32 mechanical odometer limit; or
- 33 c. Does not reflect the actual mileage and should not be relied on.
- 34 (6) ~~A statement describing each known alteration of the odometer reading,~~
35 ~~including date, person making the alteration, and approximate number~~ 36 ~~of miles removed by the alteration; and~~
- 37 (7) ~~Disclosure of excess mileage when vehicle is known to have exceeded~~
38 ~~100,000 miles and the odometer records only five whole mile digits.~~

39 ~~Provided that the certificate of title or other ownership documents shall be used in~~
40 ~~lieu of the single written statement if the title or ownership document contains the~~ 41 ~~information set forth in subsection (a)."~~

42 Sec. 3. G.S. 20-347 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

43 "(a1) Before executing any transfer of ownership document, each lessor of a leased
44 motor vehicle shall notify the lessee in writing that the lessee is required to provide

1 written disclosure to the lessor regarding mileage. In connection with the transfer of
2 ownership of the leased motor vehicle, the lessee shall furnish to the lessor a written
3 statement signed by the lessee containing the following information:

- 4 (1) The printed name of the person making the disclosure;
- 5 (2) The current odometer reading (not to include tenths of miles);
- 6 (3) The date of the statement;
- 7 (4) The lessee's printed name and current address;
- 8 (5) The lessor's printed name, signature, and current address;
- 9 (6) The identity of the vehicle, including its make, model, year, body type,
10 and vehicle identification number;
- 11 (7) The date that the lessor notified the lessee of the disclosure
12 requirements and the date the lessor received the completed disclosure 13 statement; and
- 14 (8) Certification by the lessee that to the best of his knowledge the 15 odometer reading:
 - 16 a. Reflects the actual mileage;
 - 17 b. Reflects the amount of mileage in excess of the designed
18 mechanical odometer limit; or
 - 19 c. Does not reflect the actual mileage and should not be relied on.

20 If the lessor transfers the leased vehicle without obtaining possession of it, the 21 lessor may indicate on the title the mileage disclosed by the lessee under this subsection,
22 unless the lessor has reason to believe that the disclosure by the lessee does not reflect
23 the actual mileage of the vehicle."

24 Sec. 4. G.S. 20-347(d)(3) reads as rewritten:

25 "(3) A vehicle that is ~~25~~-10 years old or older; or".

26 Sec. 5. G.S. 20-347(d) is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

27 "(2a) A vehicle sold directly by the manufacturer to any agency of the United 28 States in conformity with contractual specifications;"

29 Sec. 6. Article 15 of Chapter 20 is amended by adding a new section to read:

30 "§ 20-347.1. Odometer disclosure record retention.

31 (a) Dealers and distributors of motor vehicles who are required by this Part to 32 execute an odometer disclosure statement shall retain, for five years, a photostat,
33 carbon, or other facsimile copy of each odometer mileage statement which they issue or 34 receive. They shall retain all odometer disclosure statements at their primary place of
35 business in an order that is appropriate to business requirements and that permits
36 systematic retrieval.

37 (b) Lessors shall retain, for five years following the date they transfer
38 ownership of the leased vehicle, each odometer disclosure statement which they receive
39 from a lessee. They shall retain all odometer disclosure statements at their primary 40 place of business in an order that is appropriate to business requirements and that
41 permits systematic retrieval.

42 (c) Each auction company shall establish and retain at its primary place of
43 business in an order that is appropriate to business requirements and that permits

1 systematic retrieval, for five years following the date of sale of each motor vehicle, the
2 following records:

3 (1) The name of the most recent owner (other than the auction company);

4 (2) The name of the buyer;

5 (3) The vehicle identification number; and

6 (4) The odometer reading on the date which the auction company took
7 possession of the motor vehicle.

8 (d) Records required to be kept under this section shall be open to inspection
9 and copying by law enforcement officers of the Division in order to determine
10 compliance with this Article."

11 Sec. 7. G.S. 20-345 reads as rewritten:

12 "§ 20-345. Conspiracy.

13 No person shall conspire with any other person to violate G.S. 20-342, 20-343, 20-
14 344, 20-346, ~~or 20-347~~ 20-347, or 20-347.1."

15 Sec. 8. This act shall become effective January 1, 1990.

16 Any person, firm or corporation violating G.S. 20-343 shall be guilty of a
17 Class J felony. A violation of any remaining provision shall be a misdemeanor.
