

GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF NORTH CAROLINA
1991 SESSION

CHAPTER 327
HOUSE BILL 33

AN ACT TO REGULATE THE BUSINESS OF PROVIDING CREDIT REPAIR SERVICES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

Section 1. Chapter 66 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new Article to read:

"ARTICLE 30.

"Credit Repair Services Act.

"§ 66-220. Short title and purpose.

- (a) This act shall be known and may be cited as the Credit Repair Services Act.
- (b) The General Assembly recognizes that many of its citizens rely heavily on favorable credit ratings in order to obtain goods and services, and that some of these citizens are unable to secure credit because of unfavorable credit histories. The General Assembly further recognizes that consumers sometimes need assistance in obtaining credit or in correcting erroneous credit histories, and that this need has given rise to the establishment of businesses organized for the purpose of providing credit repair services. The purpose of this act is to ensure that businesses offering credit repair services are providing these services in a manner that is fair and reasonable to the consuming public.

"§ 66-221. Definitions.

As used in this Article, unless the context requires otherwise:

- (1) 'Credit repair business' means any person who, with respect to the extension of credit by others, sells, provides, or performs, or represents that such person can or will sell, provide, or perform any of the following services in return for the payment of money or other valuable consideration:
 - a. Improving, repairing, or correcting a consumer's credit record, history, or rating;
 - b. Obtaining revolving charge card credit or retail installment credit;
 - c. Providing advice or assistance to a consumer with regard to either sub-subdivision a. or b. above.
- (2) 'Credit repair business' does not include:
 - a. Any bank, credit union, or savings institution organized and chartered under the laws of this State or the United States, or

- any consumer finance lender licensed pursuant to Article 15 of Chapter 53 of the General Statutes;

 - c. Any person licensed as a real estate broker or real estate salesman by this State where the person is acting within the course and scope of the license;
 - d. Any person licensed to practice law in this State where the person renders services within the course and scope of that person's practice as a lawyer;
 - e. Any broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission or the Commodities Future Trading Commission where the broker-dealer is acting within the course and scope of that regulation; or
 - f. Any consumer reporting agency as defined in the Federal Fair Credit Reporting Act.

(3) 'Consumer' means any individual who is solicited to purchase or who purchases the services of a credit repair business.

"§ 66-222. Bond or trust account required.

Every credit repair business shall obtain a surety bond issued by a surety company authorized to do business in this State, or shall establish a trust account with a licensed and insured bank or savings institution located in the State of North Carolina. The amount of the bond or trust account shall be ten thousand dollars ($10,000). The bond or trust account shall be in favor of the State of North Carolina. Any person damaged by the credit repair business' breach of contract or of any obligation arising therefrom, or by any violation of this Article, may bring an action against the bond or trust account to recover damages suffered. The aggregate liability of the surety or trustee shall be only for actual damages and in no event shall exceed the amount of the bond or trust account.

"§ 66-223. Prohibited acts.

A credit repair business and its salespersons, agents, and representatives, and independent contractors who sell or attempt to sell the services of a credit repair business, shall not do any of the following:

- (1) Charge or receive any money or other valuable consideration prior to full and complete performance of the services that the credit repair business has agreed to perform for or on behalf of the consumer;

- (3) Represent that it can directly or indirectly arrange for the removal of derogatory credit information from the consumer's credit report or otherwise improve the consumer's credit report or credit standing, provided, this shall not prevent truthful, unexaggerated statements about the consumer's rights under existing law regarding his credit history or regarding access to his credit file;

- (4) Make, or counsel or advise any consumer to make, any statement that is untrue or misleading and which is known or which by the exercise of reasonable care should be known, to be untrue or misleading, to a consumer reporting agency or to any person who has extended credit to a consumer or to whom a consumer is applying for an extension of credit, with respect to a consumer's creditworthiness, credit standing, or credit capacity; or
- (5) Make or use any untrue or misleading representations in the offer or sale of the services of a credit repair business or engage, directly or indirectly, in any act, practice, or course of business which operates or would operate as a fraud or deception upon any person in connection with the offer or sale of the services of a credit repair business.
