SENATE BILL 306

Short Title: Surplus Property Law Clarified.

(Public)

Sponsors: Senator Sherron.

Referred to: State Personnel and State Government.

March 27, 1991

1 A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
2 AN ACT TO CLARIFY THE LAW REGARDING STATE AND FEDERAL 3 SURPLUS PROPERTY.

4 The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

5 Section 1. G.S. 143-49(4) reads as rewritten:

6 "(4) To have general supervision of all storerooms and stores operated by 7 the State government, or any of its departments, institutions or 8 agencies; ~~to provide for transfer or exchange to or between all State~~
9 ~~departments, institutions and agencies, or to sell all supplies, materials and~~ 10 ~~equipment which are surplus, obsolete or unused; agencies~~ and to have 11 supervision of inventories of all tangible personal property belonging
12 to the State government, or any of its departments, institutions or 13 agencies. ~~All receipts from the transfer or sale of such surplus, obsolete or~~ 14 ~~unused equipment of State departments, institutions and agencies which are~~ 15 ~~supported by appropriations from the general fund, except where such~~ 16 ~~receipts have been anticipated for, or budgeted against the cost of~~ 17 ~~replacements, shall be placed by the Secretary in an equipment reserve fund~~ 18 ~~from which expenditures may be made only with prior approval of the~~ 19 ~~Director of the Budget.~~ The duties imposed by this subdivision shall not
20 relieve any department, institution or agency of the State government 21 from accountability for equipment, materials, supplies and tangible
22 personal property under its control. ~~Prior to taking any action under this~~ 23 ~~subdivision concerning expenditures from the equipment reserve fund, the~~ 24 ~~Secretary may consult with the Advisory Budget Commission."~~

1 Sec. 2. Chapter 143 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new
2 Article to read:

3 “ARTICLE 31A1.

4 “STATE SURPLUS PROPERTY AGENCY.

5 ”§ 143-64.9A. Department of Administration designated State Surplus Property
6 Agency.

7 The Department of Administration is designated as the State agency for State surplus
8 property, and with respect to the acquisition of State surplus property the agency shall 9 be subject to the supervision and direction of the Secretary of Administration.

10 ”§ 143-64.9B. Definitions.

11 As used in this Article, except where the context clearly requires otherwise:

12 (1) ‘Agency’ means an existing department, institution, commission,
13 committee, board, division, or bureau of the State.

14 (2) ‘Nonprofit tax exempt organizations’ means those nonprofit tax
15 exempt medical institutions, hospitals, clinics, health centers, school
16 systems, schools, colleges, universities, schools for the mentally
17 retarded, schools for the physically handicapped, radio and television
18 stations licensed by the Federal Communications Commission as 19 educational radio or educational television stations, public libraries,
20 and civil defense organizations, that have been certified by the Internal 21 Revenue Service as tax-exempt nonprofit organizations under section
22 501(c)(3) of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

23 ”§ 143-64.9C. Powers and duties of the State agency for surplus property.

24 (a) The State Surplus Property Agency is authorized and directed to:

25 (1) Sell all supplies, materials, and equipment that are surplus, obsolete, or 26 unused;

27 (2) Warehouse such property; and

28 (3) Distribute such property to tax-supported or nonprofit tax-exempt
29 organizations.

30 (b) The State Surplus Property Agency is authorized and empowered to act as a
31 clearinghouse of information for agencies and private nonprofit tax-exempt
32 organizations, to locate property available for acquisition from State agencies, to 33 ascertain the terms and conditions under which the property may be obtained, to receive 34 requests from agencies and private nonprofit tax-exempt organizations, and transmit all 35 available information about the property, and to aid and assist the agencies and private 36 nonprofit tax-exempt organizations in transactions for the acquisition of State surplus 37 property.

38 (c) The State agency for surplus property, in the administration of this Article,
39 shall cooperate to the fullest extent consistent with the provisions of this Article, with 40 the departments or agencies of the State.

41 ”§ 143-64.9D. Powers of the Secretary to delegate authority.

42 (a) The Secretary of Administration may delegate to any employees of the State 43 agency for surplus property such power and authority as he or they deem reasonable and 44 proper for the effective administration of this Article. The Secretary of Administration

1 may, in his discretion, bond any person in the employ of the State agency for surplus
2 property, handling moneys, signing checks, or receiving or distributing property from 3 the United States under authority of this Article.

4 (b) The Secretary of Administration may adopt rules necessary to carry out this 5 Article.

6 "§ 143-64.9E. Warehousing, transfer, etc., charges.

7 The State agency for surplus property may assess and collect service charges or fees
8 for the acquisition, receipt, warehousing, distribution or transfer of any State surplus
9 property. All receipts from the transfer or sale of surplus, obsolete, or unused
10 equipment of State departments, institutions, and agencies, that are supported by 11 appropriations from the General Fund, except where the receipts have been anticipated
12 for, or budgeted against the cost of replacements, shall be placed by the Secretary in an 13 equipment reserve fund from which expenditures may be made only with prior approval
14 of the Director of the Budget. Prior to taking any action under this section concerning 15 expenditures from the equipment reserve fund, the Secretary may consult with the 16 Advisory Budget Commission."

17 Sec. 3. Article 3A of Chapter 143 of the General Statutes reads as rewritten:

18 "ARTICLE 3A.

19 "STATE AGENCY FOR FEDERAL SURPLUS PROPERTY.

20 "§ 143-64.1. Department of Administration designated State agency for federal

9 such action, make such expenditures and enter into such contracts, agreements and 10 undertakings for and in the name of the State, require such reports and make such 11 investigations as may be required by law or regulation of the United States of America 12 in connection with the receipt, warehousing, and distribution of property received by the 13 State agency for federal surplus property from the United States of America.

14 (e) The State agency for federal surplus property is authorized and empowered to 15 act as clearinghouse of information for the public and private nonprofit institutions and 16 agencies referred to in subsection (a) of this section, to locate property available for 17 acquisition from the United States of America, to ascertain the terms and conditions
18 under which such property may be obtained, to receive requests from the above-19 mentioned institutions and agencies and to transmit to them all available information in 20 reference to such property, and to aid and assist such institutions and agencies in every 21 way possible in the consummation or acquisition or transactions hereunder.

22 (f) The State agency for federal surplus property, in the administration of this 23 Article, shall cooperate to the fullest extent consistent with the provisions of this 24 Article, with the departments or agencies of the United States of America and shall 25 make such reports in such form and containing such information as the United States of 26 America or any of its departments or agencies may from time to time require, and it
27 shall comply with the laws of the United States of America and the rules and regulations
28 of any of the departments or agencies of the United States of America governing the 29 allocation, transfer, use, or accounting for, property donable or donated to the State.

30 "§ 143-64.3. Power of Department of Administration and Secretary to delegate 31 authority.

32 The Department of Administration and/or the Secretary of Administration may 33 delegate to any employees of the State agency for federal surplus property such power
34 and authority as he or they deem reasonable and proper for the effective administration
35 of this Article. The Department of Administration and/or the Secretary of 36 Administration may, in his or their discretion, bond any person in the employ of the 37 State agency for surplus property, handling moneys, signing checks, or receiving or 38 distributing property from the United States under authority of this Article.

39 "§ 143-64.4. Warehousing, transfer, etc., charges.

40 The State agency for federal surplus property is hereby authorized and empowered
41 to assess and collect service charges or fees for the acquisition, receipts, warehousing,
42 distribution or transfer of any property acquired by donation from the United States of 43 America for educational purposes, public health purposes, public libraries or civil 44 defense purposes, including research, and any such charges made or fees assessed shall

1 be limited to those reasonably related to the costs of care and handling in respect to the 2 acquisition, receipts, warehousing, distribution or transfer of the property by the State
3 agency for surplus property.

4 "§ 143-64.5. Department of Agriculture exempted from application of Article.

5 Notwithstanding any provisions or limitations of this Article, the North Carolina
6 Department of Agriculture is authorized and empowered to distribute food, surplus 7 commodities and agricultural products under contracts and agreements with the federal
8 government or any of its departments or agencies, and the North Carolina Department
9 of Agriculture is authorized and empowered to adopt rules in order to conform with 10 federal requirements and standards for such distribution and also for the proper
11 distribution of such food, commodities and agricultural products. To the extent set forth
12 above and in this section, the provisions of this Article shall not apply to the North
13 Carolina Department of Agriculture."
