A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO APPROPRIATE FUNDS FOR THE IMPROVEMENT OF FOSTER CARE.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

Section 1. There is appropriated from the General Fund to the Department of Administration the sum of three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000) for the 1994-95 fiscal year, for the Friends of Black Children's program that improves the provision of foster care in this State by providing training and support for foster care families and the children for whom they are caring.

Sec. 2. This act becomes effective July 1, 1994.
