A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE, UNDER CERTAIN CONDITIONS, MAGISTRATES TO ISSUE DOMESTIC VIOLENCE RESTRAINING ORDERS AND TO MAKE CONFORMING CHANGES TO THE GENERAL STATUTES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

Section 1. G.S. 50B-2 reads as rewritten:

"§ 50B-2. Institution of civil action; motion for emergency relief; temporary orders.

(a) Any person residing in this State may seek relief under this Chapter by filing a civil action or by filing a motion in any existing action filed under Chapter 50 of the General Statutes alleging acts of domestic violence against himself or herself or a minor child who resides with or is in the custody of such person. Any aggrieved party entitled to relief under this Chapter may file a civil action and proceed pro se, without the assistance of legal counsel. The district court division of the General Court of Justice shall have original jurisdiction over actions instituted under this Chapter.

(b) Emergency Relief. – A party may move the court for emergency relief if he or she believes there is a danger of serious and immediate injury to himself or herself or a minor child. A hearing on a motion for emergency relief, where no ex parte order is entered, shall be held after five days' notice of the hearing to the other party or after five days from the date of service of process on the other party, whichever occurs first, provided, however, that no hearing shall be required if the service of process is not completed on the other party. If the party is proceeding pro se and does not request an ex parte hearing, the clerk shall set a date for hearing and issue a notice of hearing

1 within the time periods provided in this subsection, and shall effect service of the 2 summons, complaint, notice, and other papers through the appropriate law enforcement 3 agency where the defendant is to be served, upon payment of the required service fees.

4 (c) Ex parte Orders. – Prior to the hearing, if it clearly appears to the court from 5 specific facts shown, that there is a danger of acts of domestic violence against the 6 aggrieved party or a minor child, the court may enter such orders as it deems necessary 7 to protect the aggrieved party or minor children from such acts provided, however, that 8 a temporary order for custody ex parte and prior to service of process and notice shall 9 not be entered unless the court finds that the child is exposed to a substantial risk of 10 bodily injury or sexual abuse. Upon the issuance of an ex parte order under this 11 subsection, a hearing shall be held within 10 days from the date of issuance of the order
12 or within seven days from the date of service of process on the other party, whichever 13 occurs later. If an aggrieved party acting pro se requests ex parte relief, the Clerk of 14 Superior Court shall schedule an ex parte hearing with the district court division of the 15 General Court of Justice within 72 hours of the filing for said relief, or by the end of the 16 next day on which the district court is in session in the county in which the action was 17 filed, whichever shall first occur. If the district court is not in session in said county, the 18 aggrieved party may contact the Clerk of Superior Court in any other county within the 19 same judicial district who shall schedule an ex parte hearing with the district court
20 division of the General Court of Justice by the end of the next day on which said court
21 division is in session in that county. Upon the issuance of an ex parte order under this 22 subsection, if the party is proceeding pro se, the Clerk shall set a date for hearing and 23 issue a notice of hearing within the time periods provided in this subsection, and shall 24 effect service of the summons, complaint, notice, order and other papers through the 25 appropriate law enforcement agency where the defendant is to be served, upon payment
26 of the required service fees.

27 (c1) Ex parte Orders by Magistrate. – Prior to the hearing, if the magistrate 28 determines that at the time the party is seeking emergency relief ex parte the clerk of 29 superior court is not available, the district court is not in session, and a district court
30 judge is not and will not be available to hear the motion for a period of four or more
31 hours, the motion may be heard by the magistrate. If it clearly appears to the magistrate 32 from specific facts shown that there is a danger of acts of domestic violence against the 33 aggrieved party or a minor child, the magistrate may enter such orders as it deems 34 necessary to protect the aggrieved party or minor children from such acts, except that a 35 temporary order for custody ex parte and prior to service of process and notice shall not 36 be entered unless the magistrate finds that the child is exposed to a substantial risk of 37 bodily injury or sexual abuse. An ex parte order entered under this subsection shall 38 expire and the magistrate shall schedule an ex parte hearing before a district court judge 39 within 72 hours of the filing for relief under this subsection, or by the end of the next 40 day on which the district court is in session in the county in which the action was filed, 41 whichever occurs first. A party who has paid court costs due for seeking an order from 42 the magistrate under this subsection shall not be liable for court costs for a hearing 43 before the district court judge scheduled and heard pursuant to an order entered by the 44 magistrate under this subsection. Ex parte orders entered by the district court judge

1 pursuant to this subsection shall be entered and scheduled in accordance with subsection
2 (c) of this section.

3 (c2) The authority granted to magistrates to award temporary child custody
4 pursuant to subsection (c1) of this section and pursuant to G.S. 50B-3(a)(4) is granted
5 subject to custody rules to be established by the supervising chief district judge of each 6 judicial district.

7 (d) Pro Se Forms. The Clerk of Superior Court of each county shall provide to 8 pro se complainants all forms which are necessary or appropriate to enable them to 9 proceed pro se pursuant to this section. The Clerk shall provide a supply of pro se
10 forms to magistrates who shall make the forms available to complainants seeking relief 11 under subsection (c1) of this section."

12 Sec. 2. G.S. 50B-3(a) reads as rewritten:

13 "(a) The ~~court~~-court, including magistrates as authorized under G.S. 50B-2(c1),
14 may grant any protective order or approve any consent agreement to bring about a

34 "§ 50B-4. Enforcement of orders.

35 (a) A party may file a motion for contempt for violation of any order entered pursuant 36 to this Chapter. Said party may file and proceed with such motion pro se, using forms 37 provided by the Clerk of Superior ~~Court~~-Court or the magistrate. Upon the filing pro se 38 of a motion for contempt under this subsection, the ~~clerk~~-clerk, or the magistrate, if the 39 facts show clearly that there is danger of acts of domestic violence against the aggrieved
40 party or a minor child and the motion is made at a time when the clerk is not available,
41 shall schedule and issue notice of a show cause hearing with the district court division 42 of the General Court of Justice at the earliest possible date pursuant to G.S. 5A-23. The 43 ~~Clerk~~-Clerk, or the magistrate in the case of notice issued by the magistrate pursuant to 44 this subsection, shall effect service of the motion, notice, and other papers through the

1 appropriate law enforcement agency where the defendant is to be served, upon payment
2 of the required service fees.

3 (b) A law-enforcement officer shall arrest and take a person into custody without 4 a warrant or other process if the officer has probable cause to believe that the person has 5 violated a court order excluding the person from the residence or household occupied by 6 a victim of domestic violence or directing the person to refrain from harassing or 7 interfering with the victim, and if the victim, or someone acting on the victim's behalf, 8 presents the law-enforcement officer with a copy of the order or the officer determines 9 that such an order exists, and can ascertain the contents thereof, through phone, radio or 10 other communication with appropriate authorities. The person arrested shall be brought 11 before the appropriate district court judge at the earliest time possible to show cause 12 why he or she should not be held in civil contempt for violation of the order. The 13 person arrested shall be entitled to be released under the provisions of Article 26, Bail, 14 of Chapter 15A of the General Statutes."
