May 11, 1993

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO APPROPRIATE FUNDS TO THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR FOR ADDITIONAL STAFF AND EQUIPMENT.

Whereas, protecting the health and safety of North Carolina's workers is a primary responsibility of the Department of Labor; and

Whereas, the safety consultants and inspectors who teach and consult with workers about workplace health and safety require additional support and personnel to best assist employers and employees across North Carolina; and

Whereas, the General Assembly has given the Department of Labor the mandate to enforce the provisions of the Retaliatory Employee Discrimination Act which requires sufficient investigators and support personnel to protect employees from unlawful retaliatory employment discrimination; and

Whereas, the administrative services offered by the Department of Labor provide information, education, and training, as well as the expertise to help to decrease workplace illnesses and injuries and to provide the first line of communications and assistance to the State's employers and employees; and

Whereas, computerized, up-to-date and accurate information provides the State with a device for measuring the effectiveness of established programs, and assistance in assessing future health and safety needs; and

Whereas, there exists a current backlog of wage payment complaints such that the average length of time needed to close a wage complaint case is seven months, and additional compliance officers would enable the Department to reduce the length of a wage complaint investigation to two months and to curb suspect wage and hour practices; and
