17 foreclosure should not be allowed to be held. The notice shall contain a 18 statement that if the debtor does not intend to contest the creditor's 19 allegations of default, the debtor does not have to appear at the 20 hearing and that his failure to attend the hearing will not affect his 22 to attend the actual sale, should he elect to do so.

 - 23 (8) That if the foreclosure sale is consummated, the purchaser will be 24 entitled to possession of the real estate as of the date of delivery of his

40 that hearing, the mortgagee or trustee shall file the notice of hearing in any other county

14 from any probable loss by reason of appeal; and upon posting of the bond the clerk shall 15 stay the foreclosure pending appeal.

16 (e) In the event of an appeal, either party may demand that the matter be heard at 17 the next succeeding term of the court to which the appeal is taken which convenes 10 or 18 more days after the hearing before the clerk, and such hearing shall take precedence 19 over the trial of other cases except cases of exceptions to homesteads and appeals in 20 summary ejection actions, provided the presiding judge may in his discretion postpone 21 such hearing if the rights of the parties or the public in any other pending case require 22 that such case be heard first. In those counties where no session of court is scheduled 23 within 30 days from the date of hearing before the clerk, either party may petition any 24 regular or special superior court judge resident in a district or assigned to hold courts in 25 a district where any part of the real estate is located, or the chief district judge of a 26 district where any part of the real estate is located, who shall be authorized to hear the 27 appeal. A certified copy of any order entered as a result of the appeal shall be filed in 28 all counties where the notice of hearing has been filed.

29 (f) Waiver of the right to notice and hearing provided herein shall not be 30 permitted except as set forth herein. In any case in which the original principal amount 31 of indebtedness secured was one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000), or more, any 32 person entitled to notice and hearing may waive ~~after default~~ the right to notice and 33 hearing by written instrument signed and duly acknowledged by such party. In all other 34 cases, at any time subsequent to service of the notice of hearing provided above, the 35 clerk, upon the request of the mortgagee or trustee, shall mail to all other parties entitled 36 to notice of such hearing a form by which such parties may waive their rights to the 37 hearing. Upon the return of the forms to the clerk bearing the signatures of each such 38 party and that of a witness to each such party's signature (which witness shall not be an 39 agent or employee of the mortgagee or trustee), the clerk in his discretion may dispense 40 with the necessity of a hearing and proceed to issue the order authorizing sale as set 41 forth above.

42 (g) Any notice, order, or other papers required by this Article to be filed in the 43 office of the clerk of superior court shall be filed in the same manner as a special 44 proceeding."
