2 AND WOMEN WHO GAVE THEIR LIVES IN THE KOREAN WAR ON THE 3 50TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE BEGINNING OF THE WAR.

4 Whereas, at 4:00 A. M. on Sunday, June 25, 1950, the North Korean People's 5 Army under Marshal Choc Yong Gun crossed the 38th parallel into the Republic of 6 Korea (South Korea) with an initial invasion force of seven infantry divisions and a tank 7 brigade; and

8 Whereas, in response to an urgent request of the United Nations Securities 9 Council for member nations to come to the aid of the Republic of Korea, President Harry 10 Truman authorized the use of the air and sea forces of the United States of America on 11 June 27; and

12 Whereas, as American pilots began their bombing missions against North 13 Korean troops on June 28, the United States of America suffered its first casualties in the 14 Korean War; and

15 Whereas, American ground troops were ordered into the Republic of Korea on 16 June 30, just two days after its capital, Seoul, fell to the invading North Korean Army; 17 and

18 Whereas, over the next three years American men and women joined with their 19 comrades from 14 other United Nations countries (Great Britain, Turkey, Canada,
20 Australia, Thailand, France, Greece, New Zealand, Netherlands, Colombia, Belgium,

1 Ethiopia, Luxemborg, and South Africa) to heroically repel the invading forces and to 2 restore the political, civil, and military integrity of the Republic of Korea; and

3 Whereas, the American military presence in South Korea was the determining 4 factor in the outcome of the first war in which the United Nations had engaged; and

5 Whereas, courageous Americans fought, bled, and died in every theater of 6 operations in the Korean War; and

7 Whereas, the sacrifice, the heroism, and the gallantry of Americans at Inchon, 8 Seoul, the Yalu River, the Pusan Perimeter, the Chosin Reservoir, Pork Chop Hill, the 9 Iron Triangle, Heartbreak Ridge, and many other places on Korean soil were in the finest 10 tradition of the Armed Forces of the United States of America; and

11 Whereas, of the 147,131 combat casualties suffered by United States forces
12 during the Korean War, some 33,629 Americans were killed in action or died of battle 13 wounds; and

14 Whereas, more than 177,000 North Carolinians served their nation in military 15 service during the Korean War; and

16 Whereas, 2,272 North Carolinians were wounded in action and 784 North 17 Carolinians made the ultimate sacrifice in the Korean War; and

18 Whereas, three North Carolinians were awarded the Congressional Medal of 19 Honor for their outstanding valor during the Korean War; and 20 Whereas, the week of June 25 - July 1 marks the 50th anniversary of the 21 beginning of the Korean War; and

22 Whereas, it is right and fitting that a grateful State and nation should reflect 23 upon and honor the important role that North Carolina and the United States of America 24 played in the Korean War; and

25 Whereas, as all of America begins to commemorate the 50th anniversary of the 26 beginning of the Korean War, the House of Representatives deems it just and proper to
