Covenant marriage. 8 Notwithstanding Chapter 51 of the General Statutes, a covenant marriage 9 shall be recognized in this State as a marriage entered into by one male and one female 10 who understand and agree that the marriage between them is a lifelong relationship. Parties to a covenant marriage shall have received authorized counseling emphasizing 11 12 the nature, purposes, and responsibilities of marriage. Only when there has been a complete and total breach of the marital covenant commitment may a party seek a 13 14 declaration that the marriage is no longer legally recognized. 15 A man and a woman may contract a covenant marriage by declaring their intent to do so on their application for a marriage license as otherwise required under 16 17 this Article and executing a declaration of intent to contract a covenant marriage as 18 provided in G.S. 51-5.4. The application for a marriage license and the declaration of intent shall be filed with the official who issues the marriage license. 19 "§ 51-5.4. Content of declaration of intent. 20 21 (a) A declaration of intent to contract a covenant marriage shall contain all of the following: 22 23 (1) A recitation signed by both parties that states: 24 'A COVENANT MARRIAGE We do solemnly declare that marriage is a covenant between a man 25 and a woman who agree to live together as husband and wife for so 26 27 long as they both may live. We have chosen each other carefully and disclosed to one another everything that could adversely affect the 28 29 decision to enter into this marriage. We have received authorized 30 counseling on the nature, purposes, and responsibilities of marriage. We have read the Covenant Marriage Act, and we understand that a 31 32 covenant marriage is for life. If we experience marital difficulties, we 33 commit ourselves to take all reasonable efforts to preserve our marriage, including marital counseling. 34 35 With full knowledge of what this commitment means, we do hereby declare that our marriage will be bound by North Carolina law on 36 covenant marriages, and we promise to love, honor, and care for one 37 another as husband and wife for the rest of our lives.' 38 39 An affidavit by the parties that they have received authorized (2)
