Senate Bill 1617 amends GS 20-79.4, 20-79.7, and 20-81.12 to authorize a special vehicle registration plate that bears the inscription, "Home of American Golf," upon payment of an additional $30 fee. Amends GS 20-63(b) to add the Golf Plate to those plates not required to be a "First in Flight" plate

ASSUMPTIONS AND METHODOLOGY:

The Home of American Golf license plates (Golf Plates) will generate $30 in fees for each license plate application. Ten dollars of the fee is devoted to the Special License Plate Registration Account, with the other $20 going into the Collegiate and Cultural Attraction Plate Account. The funds in the Collegiate and Cultural Attraction Account derived from the sale of the Home of American Golf Plates must be transferred quarterly to the Given Memorial Library, Inc., to provide funding for the Given Memorial Library – The Tufts Archives. Fiscal Research cannot estimate how many people will apply for the license plate.
