1 A JOINT RESOLUTION HONORING THE LIFE AND MEMORY OF ZEBULON DOYLE
2 ALLEY, FORMER MEMBER OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

3 Whereas, Zebulon Doyle Alley was born on August 9, 1928, in Sylva, North 4 Carolina, to Doyle Davis Alley and Edith Purcell Alley; and

5 Whereas, Zebulon Doyle Alley attended the public schools of Haywood County, 6 North Carolina, before transferring to Oak Ridge Military Academy; and

7 Whereas, in 1948, Zebulon Doyle Alley joined the United States Army and served 8 until 1950, when he entered the enlisted reserves; and

9 Whereas, Zebulon Doyle Alley was soon called back to active duty when the 10 Korean War broke out and served as a forward observer in the 38th Infantry Regiment. On 11 March 3, 1951, he was involved in an intense battle in which he distinguished himself
12 heroically, risking his own life for his fellow soldiers. He was seriously injured but recovered 13 and was awarded the Bronze Star with "V" device for valor and the Purple Heart for his 14 service; and

15 Whereas, Zebulon Doyle Alley returned from the war to complete his undergraduate 16 and legal education at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill; and

17 Whereas, Zebulon Doyle Alley was Assistant Director of the Institute of 18 Government of The University of North Carolina, practiced law with former Chief Justice Joe 19 Branch, served as a State attorney to the Federal Land Bank, and practiced law in Waynesville, 20 North Carolina; and

21 Whereas, Zebulon Doyle Alley was elected to the North Carolina Senate in 1971, 22 representing a district that included his hometown of Waynesville; and

23 Whereas, Zebulon Doyle Alley went on to serve the citizens of the State in other 24 capacities including as the Governor's Legislative Liaison, Commissioner on the North 25 Carolina Board of Alcohol Beverage Control, Commissioner on the North Carolina Courts 26 Commission, and Chair of the State Capitol Foundation Board of Directors, among others; and

27 Whereas, Zebulon Doyle Alley had an unmatched career in private practice as a 28 lobbyist, having been ranked No. 1 on the list of most influential lobbyists by the Center for 29 Public Policy Research for 16 consecutive years; and

30 Whereas, Zebulon Doyle Alley's passion was pro bono representation of the State's 31 veterans for over 25 years; and

32 Whereas, Zebulon Doyle Alley passed away on Thursday, July 11, 2013, at the age 33 of 84; and

34 Whereas, Zebulon Doyle Alley is survived by his sons, Doyle D. Alley II and 35 Randall G. Alley; brothers, John H. Alley and Charles P. Alley; and granddaughter, Miranda 36 Alley; Now, therefore,

37 Be it resolved by the Senate, the House of Representatives concurring:
