GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF NORTH CAROLINA SESSION 2023

H HOUSE BILL 684

Referred to: Insurance, if favorable, Rules, Calendar, and Operations of the House April 19, 2023 A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT TO REQUIRE HEALTH BENEFIT PLANS THAT PROVIDE COVERAGE FOR PRESCRIPTION EYE DROPS TO ALSO PROVIDE COVERAGE FOR EARLY REFILLS. The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts: SECTION 1. Article 3 of Chapter 58 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read: "§ 58-3-295. Coverage for early refills of prescription eye drops. Every health benefit plan offered by an insurer in this State that provides coverage for prescription eye drops shall not deny coverage for a refill of an eye drop prescription if both of the following conditions apply: (1) For a 30-day supply, the patient requested the refill after either of the following: a. The passage of an amount of time after which a patient should have used seventy percent (70%) of the dosage units of the drug according to a health care provider's instructions. b. Twenty-one days after either (i) the original date the prescription was distributed to the insured. (2) The prescribing health care provider indicates on the original prescription that additional quantities are needed, and the refill requested by the insured does not exceed the number of additional quantities needed." SECTION 2. This act becomes effective October 1, 2023, and applies to contracts	Short Title:	Prescription Eye Drop Early Refill Coverage. (I	Public)
April 19, 2023 A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT TO REQUIRE HEALTH BENEFIT PLANS THAT PROVIDE COVERAGE FOR PRESCRIPTION EYE DROPS TO ALSO PROVIDE COVERAGE FOR EARLY REFILLS. The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts: SECTION 1. Article 3 of Chapter 58 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read: "§ 58-3-295. Coverage for early refills of prescription eye drops. Every health benefit plan offered by an insurer in this State that provides coverage for prescription eye drops shall not deny coverage for a refill of an eye drop prescription if both of the following conditions apply: (1) For a 30-day supply, the patient requested the refill after either of the following: a. The passage of an amount of time after which a patient should have used seventy percent (70%) of the dosage units of the drug according to a health care provider's instructions. b. Twenty-one days after either (i) the original date the prescription was distributed to the insured. (2) The prescribing health care provider indicates on the original prescription that additional quantities are needed, and the refill requested by the insured does not exceed the number of additional quantities needed."	Sponsors:		·
A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT TO REQUIRE HEALTH BENEFIT PLANS THAT PROVIDE COVERAGE FOR PRESCRIPTION EYE DROPS TO ALSO PROVIDE COVERAGE FOR EARLY REFILLS. The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts: SECTION 1. Article 3 of Chapter 58 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read: "§ 58-3-295. Coverage for early refills of prescription eye drops. Every health benefit plan offered by an insurer in this State that provides coverage for prescription eye drops shall not deny coverage for a refill of an eye drop prescription if both of the following conditions apply: (1) For a 30-day supply, the patient requested the refill after either of the following: a. The passage of an amount of time after which a patient should have used seventy percent (70%) of the dosage units of the drug according to a health care provider's instructions. b. Twenty-one days after either (i) the original date the prescription was distributed to the insured or (ii) the date the most recent refill was distributed to the insured. (2) The prescribing health care provider indicates on the original prescription that additional quantities are needed, and the refill requested by the insured does not exceed the number of additional quantities needed."	Referred to:	Insurance, if favorable, Rules, Calendar, and Operations of the House
AN ACT TO REQUIRE HEALTH BENEFIT PLANS THAT PROVIDE COVERAGE FOR PRESCRIPTION EYE DROPS TO ALSO PROVIDE COVERAGE FOR EARLY REFILLS. The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts: SECTION 1. Article 3 of Chapter 58 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read: "§ 58-3-295. Coverage for early refills of prescription eye drops. Every health benefit plan offered by an insurer in this State that provides coverage for prescription eye drops shall not deny coverage for a refill of an eye drop prescription if both of the following conditions apply: (1) For a 30-day supply, the patient requested the refill after either of the following: a. The passage of an amount of time after which a patient should have used seventy percent (70%) of the dosage units of the drug according to a health care provider's instructions. b. Twenty-one days after either (i) the original date the prescription was distributed to the insured or (ii) the date the most recent refill was distributed to the insured. (2) The prescribing health care provider indicates on the original prescription that additional quantities are needed, and the refill requested by the insured does not exceed the number of additional quantities needed."	April 19, 2023
a new section to read: "§ 58-3-295. Coverage for early refills of prescription eye drops. Every health benefit plan offered by an insurer in this State that provides coverage for prescription eye drops shall not deny coverage for a refill of an eye drop prescription if both of the following conditions apply: (1) For a 30-day supply, the patient requested the refill after either of the following: a. The passage of an amount of time after which a patient should have used seventy percent (70%) of the dosage units of the drug according to a health care provider's instructions. b. Twenty-one days after either (i) the original date the prescription was distributed to the insured or (ii) the date the most recent refill was distributed to the insured. (2) The prescribing health care provider indicates on the original prescription that additional quantities are needed, and the refill requested by the insured does not exceed the number of additional quantities needed."	AN ACT TO REQUIRE HEALTH BENEFIT PLANS THAT PROVIDE COVERAGE FOR PRESCRIPTION EYE DROPS TO ALSO PROVIDE COVERAGE FOR EARLY REFILLS.
 "§ 58-3-295. Coverage for early refills of prescription eye drops. Every health benefit plan offered by an insurer in this State that provides coverage for prescription eye drops shall not deny coverage for a refill of an eye drop prescription if both of the following conditions apply:	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
Every health benefit plan offered by an insurer in this State that provides coverage for prescription eye drops shall not deny coverage for a refill of an eye drop prescription if both of the following conditions apply: (1) For a 30-day supply, the patient requested the refill after either of the following: a. The passage of an amount of time after which a patient should have used seventy percent (70%) of the dosage units of the drug according to a health care provider's instructions. b. Twenty-one days after either (i) the original date the prescription was distributed to the insured or (ii) the date the most recent refill was distributed to the insured. (2) The prescribing health care provider indicates on the original prescription that additional quantities are needed, and the refill requested by the insured does not exceed the number of additional quantities needed."
the following conditions apply: (1) For a 30-day supply, the patient requested the refill after either of the following: a. The passage of an amount of time after which a patient should have used seventy percent (70%) of the dosage units of the drug according to a health care provider's instructions. b. Twenty-one days after either (i) the original date the prescription was distributed to the insured or (ii) the date the most recent refill was distributed to the insured. (2) The prescribing health care provider indicates on the original prescription that additional quantities are needed, and the refill requested by the insured does not exceed the number of additional quantities needed."
 (1) For a 30-day supply, the patient requested the refill after either of the following: a. The passage of an amount of time after which a patient should have used seventy percent (70%) of the dosage units of the drug according to a health care provider's instructions. b. Twenty-one days after either (i) the original date the prescription was distributed to the insured or (ii) the date the most recent refill was distributed to the insured. (2) The prescribing health care provider indicates on the original prescription that additional quantities are needed, and the refill requested by the insured does not exceed the number of additional quantities needed." 	• • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • •
a. The passage of an amount of time after which a patient should have used seventy percent (70%) of the dosage units of the drug according to a health care provider's instructions. b. Twenty-one days after either (i) the original date the prescription was distributed to the insured or (ii) the date the most recent refill was distributed to the insured. (2) The prescribing health care provider indicates on the original prescription that additional quantities are needed, and the refill requested by the insured does not exceed the number of additional quantities needed."	•
a. The passage of an amount of time after which a patient should have used seventy percent (70%) of the dosage units of the drug according to a health care provider's instructions. b. Twenty-one days after either (i) the original date the prescription was distributed to the insured or (ii) the date the most recent refill was distributed to the insured. (2) The prescribing health care provider indicates on the original prescription that additional quantities are needed, and the refill requested by the insured does not exceed the number of additional quantities needed."	(1		of the
 b. Twenty-one days after either (i) the original date the prescription was distributed to the insured or (ii) the date the most recent refill was distributed to the insured. (2) The prescribing health care provider indicates on the original prescription that additional quantities are needed, and the refill requested by the insured does not exceed the number of additional quantities needed." 		a. The passage of an amount of time after which a patient should used seventy percent (70%) of the dosage units of the drug acc
The prescribing health care provider indicates on the original prescription that additional quantities are needed, and the refill requested by the insured does not exceed the number of additional quantities needed."		b. Twenty-one days after either (i) the original date the prescription distributed to the insured or (ii) the date the most recent refined to the insured or (iii) the date the most recent refined to the insured or (iii) the date the most recent refined to the insured or (iii) the date the most recent refined to the insured or (iii) the date the most recent refined to the insured or (iii) the date the most recent refined to the insured or (iii) the date the most recent refined to the insured or (iii) the date the most recent refined to the insured or (iii) the date the most recent refined to the insured or (iii) the date the most recent refined to the insured or (iii) the date the most recent refined to the insured or (iii) the date the most recent refined to the insured or (iii) the date the most recent refined to the insured or (iii) the date the most recent refined to the insured or (iii) the date the most recent refined to the insured or (iii) the date the most recent refined to the insured or (iii) the date the most recent refined to the insured or (iii) the date the most recent refined to the insured or (iii) the date the most recent refined to the insured to the insu issued, renewed, or amended on or after that date.
	(2	The prescribing health care provider indicates on the original prescription additional quantities are needed, and the refill requested by the insure		