1 A HOUSE RESOLUTION HONORING THE CAROLINA HURRICANES HOCKEY TEAM, 2 WINNER OF THE STANLEY CUP, AS CHAMPIONS OF THE NATIONAL HOCKEY
3 LEAGUE.

4 Whereas, the Carolina Hurricanes, representing the great State of North Carolina,
5 were originally founded as the Whalers and relocated from Hartford, Connecticut, to Raleigh, 6 North Carolina, in 1997, becoming a cornerstone of professional sports in the State; and

7 Whereas, the Carolina Hurricanes completed a historic 2025-2026 National Hockey
8 League regular season with 53 wins, 22 losses, and 7 overtime losses, claiming the Metropolitan 9 Division championship for the fourth time in six seasons, claiming the No. 1 seed in the Eastern 10 Conference for the first time in franchise history, scoring a franchise-record 291 goals, with seven 11 players scoring 20 or more goals, establishing themselves as one of the most complete teams in 12 the entire league through elite defense, relentless forechecking, veteran leadership, and 13 exceptional goaltending; and

14 Whereas, Head Coach Rod Brind'Amour, has been involved as a player or coach in 15 102 of Carolina's 104 all-time playoff victories, and guided this team to eight consecutive playoff 16 berths, including back-to-back deep runs and now a Stanley Cup championship; and

17 Whereas, the Hurricanes dominated through the 2026 Stanley Cup Playoffs with 16 18 wins and three losses, sweeping the Ottawa Senators and the Philadelphia Flyers, eliminating the 19 Montreal Canadiens in the conference finals in five games and defeating the Vegas Golden 20 Knights in six games to secure the Stanley Cup for the second time in franchise history; and

21 Whereas, team captain Jordan Staal won the Conn Smythe Trophy as the Most 22 Valuable Player of the 2026 Stanley Cup Playoffs, finishing the postseason with 12 points, 23 including a franchise-record six goals in the Final; and

24 Whereas, the Hurricanes' remaining offensive corps mounted a deep, well-balanced 25 attack built on relentless forechecking, possession dominance, and versatile scoring; the 26 defensive corps operated as a highly mobile, puck-moving, and aggressive unit; and the 27 goaltenders delivered a legendary performance in the playoffs; and

28 Whereas, team owner Tom Dundon, and many, many others, have all had an 29 instrumental role in the Canes' quest for the Cup; and

30 Whereas, the Carolina Hurricanes have been a consistent beacon of pride for the 31 citizens of North Carolina, fostering community engagement, youth hockey programs, and civic
