50 "§ 58-79-40. Insurance company to furnish information.

1 (a) The chief of any municipal fire or police department, county fire marshal or sheriff,
2 or special agent of the State Bureau of Investigation or the Office of the State Fire Marshal may
3 request any insurance company investigating a fire loss of real or personal property to release
4 any information in its possession relative to that loss. The company shall release the information
5 and cooperate with any official authorized to request such information pursuant to this section.
6 The information shall include, but is not limited to:

- 7 (1) Any insurance policy relevant to a fire loss under investigation and any 8 application for such a policy;
- 9 (2) Policy premium payment records;
- 10 (3) History of previous claims made by the insured for fire loss;
- 11 (4) Material relating to the investigation of the loss, including statements of any 12 person, proof of loss, and any other relevant evidence.

13 (b) If an insurance company (or insurance agency) has reason to suspect that a fire loss 14 to its insured's real or personal property was caused by incendiary means, the company shall 15 furnish the State Bureau of Investigation or the Office of the State Fire Marshal with all relevant 16 material acquired during its investigation of the fire loss, cooperate with and take such action as 17 may be requested of it by any law-enforcement agency, and permit any person ordered by a court
18 to inspect any of its records pertaining to the policy and the loss.

19 (c) In the absence of fraud or malice, no insurance company (or insurance agency), or 20 person who furnishes information on its behalf, shall be liable for damages in a civil action or 21 subject to criminal prosecution for any oral or written statement made or any other action that is 22 necessary to supply information required pursuant to this section.

23 (d) The officials and departmental and agency personnel receiving any information
24 furnished pursuant to this section shall hold the information in confidence until such time as its 25 release is required pursuant to a criminal or civil proceeding.

26 (e) Any official referred to in subsection (a) of this section may be required to testify as 27 to any information in his possession regarding the fire loss of real or personal property in any 28 civil action in which any person seeks recovery under a policy against an insurance company for 29 the fire loss.
