27 SECTION 2. Article 20 of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes is amended by adding 28 a new section to read:

29 "§ 14-118.6A. Fraudulent deed or conveyance.

30 (a) The actual owner of an interest in real property subject to a recorded false, fictitious, 31 or fraudulent deed or conveyance may file a civil action and proceed pro se, without the 32 assistance of legal counsel. The district court division of the General Court of Justice shall have 33 original jurisdiction over actions instituted under this section, and a party may seek emergency 34 relief under this section by filing a civil action in district court alleging the filing or recording of 35 a false, fictitious, or fraudulent deed or conveyance in a public record or a private record generally 36 available to the public. If an ex parte hearing is requested, and, upon the submission of a sworn

1 statement and evidence supporting the allegation of the recordation of a false, fictitious, or 2 fraudulent deed or conveyance, a temporary order, declaring the recording to be fraudulent, shall 3 be entered if the court finds that there is no statutory, contractual, or other legal basis for the 4 alleged false, fictitious, or fraudulent recording. A temporary order entered under this subsection
5 shall remain in effect for the later of 60 days or until the entry of a permanent order. The chief 6 district court judge may authorize a magistrate or magistrates to hear any motions for emergency
7 relief ex parte under this section. If a party acting pro se requests ex parte relief under this section, 8 the clerk of superior court shall schedule an ex parte hearing with the district court division of 9 the General Court of Justice within 72 hours of the filing for said relief, or by the end of the next 10 day on which the district court is in session in the county in which the action was filed, whichever 11 shall first occur. If the district court is not in session in said county, the party may contact the 12 clerk of superior court in any other county within the same judicial district who shall schedule
13 an ex parte hearing with the district court division of the General Court of Justice by the end of 14 the next day on which said court division is in session in that county. Upon the issuance of an ex
15 parte order under this subsection, a hearing shall be held within 10 calendar days from the date 16 of issuance of the order or within seven calendar days from the date of service of process on the 17 other party, whichever occurs later. A continuance shall be limited to one extension of no more 18 than 10 calendar days unless all parties consent or good cause is shown. The hearing shall have 19 priority on the court calendar. If, after an opportunity to be heard to all interested persons and all 20 persons claiming an ownership interest in the property, the court finds that there is no statutory, 21 contractual, or other legal basis for the recording, the court shall enter a permanent order finding 22 that the recorded deed or conveyance is false and is void as a matter of law. The court may also 23 include in the order any of the following types of relief:

24 (1) Grant to a party possession of the real property and order the ejectment of any 25 party on the premises.

26 (2) Award to a party attorneys' fees and other costs for the action.

27 (3) Stay any proceedings involving the subject real property in which the property 28 owner is not a party to.

29 (b) Upon being presented with an ex parte or a permanent order duly issued by a court of 30 competent jurisdiction of this State declaring that a deed or conveyance already recorded is false 31 and void as a matter of law, the register of deeds that received the false recording shall record
32 and cross-index the order and shall, in addition to recording the court's order, also conspicuously 33 mark on the first page of the original record previously recorded the following statement: "THE 34 CLAIM ASSERTED IN THIS DOCUMENT IS FALSE AND IS NOT PROVIDED FOR BY 35 THE GENERAL LAWS OF THIS STATE." An order presented for recording pursuant to this 36 section shall be recorded and cross-indexed by the register of deeds, and no fee authorized under 37 G.S. 161-10, or otherwise, shall be charged.

38 (c) In addition to any criminal penalties provided by law, the presentation of an 39 instrument for recording with a register of deeds that purports to be a deed or conveyance that is 40 determined to be materially false, fictitious, or fraudulent shall constitute a violation of 41 G.S. 75-1.1.

42 (d) A person who initiates an action under this section knowing that the subject deed or 43 conveyance is not false, fictitious, or fraudulent shall be punished as a Class G felon."
